The Youngstown Air Reserve Base Community Council (YARBCC) was formed about 35 years ago to provide a forum for addressing issues common to the community and the military, as a vehicle for action for resolving issues. Undertaking projects of significance to the community and the military, and to help enhance public understanding of the role and mission of the Air Force Reserve and its presence among our communities. We are proud to say that we have enjoyed success achieving that purpose. We are now recognized as a private Non-Profit Organization. We continue our pursuit of excellence and tradition of quality service. We are active in everything from fund raising projects to humanitarian airlift missions, always an equal and viable partner with the Military, the community and the government.

Please contact Joe Buchanan at (330)726-1492 or Rick Jugenheimer at (330)360-9300 to make your donation or answer any questions you may have. We thank you in advance for your consideration.
